First Blue Horse Newsletter!

Recently artists Paul Burke and Anna Gustafon sat down with famous journalist Camille Piglia: CP - So Paul and Anna I have been receiving invitations to your shows for years...
...why a newsletter for your gallery and why now?

PB - Thanks Camille and first of all I want to thank you for all of your support over the years! Over time Anna and I realized that since our work is increasingly about story telling the newsletter format is ideal for us...

New Suite for Bloom B&B

On August 11th we opened our new Bloom "Orchard Suite". Over 600 square feet and full of light, it looks out at our orchard and the mountains of Vancouver Island. "Orchard" has the same style and simple elegance of "Pond", our original Bloom Organic B&B suite. In addition to a full sitting room, it has double french doors that open directly onto a private patio with access to forest trails steps away.

PAGE SIX New Dog Sets Tongues Wagging

Great anticipation arose when Mrs. Drysdale announced the appointment of Louis Ponti - "The World's Best and Most Fearless Canine Cyclist" as Headliner of the Circus. She couldn't have foreseen the ripples that his presence would cause. First he wowed the entire troop with demonstrations of his skill, and then he dropped his bombshell: his intention to collaborate with some of the existing acts! "Together we will create Magnificent Beauty and Daring!" After days of extremely competitive auditions, Louis Ponti chose the Immensely talented World Renowned "Sparks Family!" But what of those late night chats with young Violet Swinedon? Is romance in the air?
